

Winter Newsletter

Our new meetings venue at the sailing club seems to be working well in spite of having to accommodate a few late changes to our published programme due to illness of speakers or their close relatives. Hopefully it should now settle down.

Dates for your Diary:

1-Day Winter Exhibition & Sale – Sat 5th December in the Victoria Halls. Remember that this is predominantly for unframed pictures (maximum of 5) under £50, although you can include 1 framed picture with no price limit. It would also be nice to have a few more craft items as they always go well at the Winter Sale.

Christmas Social – Thursday Dec 10th at the Sailing Clubhouse, not the Tennis Club as in your programme. It will take the usual format with food and drinks and a video show. Please feel free to bring along a plate of something delicious!

Exhibition of 2 Carols – This is not a Christmas song fest but an quality exhibition of paintings by Carol Moore and Carol Dewart at the R. G. I. Kelly Gallery, 118 Douglas Street, Glasgow G2 4ET from Sat 24th October until 7th November, opening hours 10.30-5pm weekdays and Sat 10.30-1pm.

Helensburgh Library Exhibition – An exhibition of paintings by Julia Gourney and Mary-Jane Selwood running during November. This is another one not to be missed.

Charity Donation :

As reported in the local press, the club has donated £1,000 to Jigsaw, which was selected as the very worthy recipient of this years charity donation by the committee on your behalf. The funds come from the surplus in our exhibitions account. Jigsaw staff were very grateful for this unexpected windfall since they had a large shortfall in expected funding this year.

Annual General Meeting (April 8th 2010):

It is not too early to think about any substantive items which you might wish to be included in the Agenda. If you have something then please send it to our Secretary, Anita McLaren, preferably by e mail (anita@helensburgh.info). Minor points which you may wish to raise can be dealt with under Any Other Business at the end of the meeting.

We have been contacted by the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce who would like to hold an Arts and Crafts sale on November 21st in the Community Centre, Alexandria. They would appreciate a few members of the Art Club taking tables for the day. If you are interested could you contact Anita a.s.a.p. or you could email:-

williamwilkie53@hotmail.com

Finally, today is the day to collect the exhibits from the Library at the Artist Adventure Exhibition.

Winter Newsletter

Our new meetings venue at the sailing club seems to be working well in spite of having to accommodate a few late changes to our published programme due to illness of speakers or their close relatives. Hopefully it should now settle down.

Dates for your Diary:

1-Day Winter Exhibition & Sale – Sat 5th December in the Victoria Halls. Remember that this is predominantly for unframed pictures (maximum of 5) under £50, although you can include 1 framed picture with no price limit. It would also be nice to have a few more craft items as they always go well at the Winter Sale.

Christmas Social – Thursday Dec 10th at the Sailing Clubhouse, not the Tennis Club as in your programme. It will take the usual format with food and drinks and a video show. Please feel free to bring along a plate of something delicious!

Exhibition of 2 Carols – This is not a Christmas song fest but an quality exhibition of paintings by Carol Moore and Carol Dewart at the R. G. I. Kelly Gallery, 118 Douglas Street, Glasgow G2 4ET from Sat 24th October until 7th November, opening hours 10.30-5pm weekdays and Sat 10.30-1pm.

Helensburgh Library Exhibition – An exhibition of paintings by Julia Gourney and Mary-Jane Selwood running during November. This is another one not to be missed.

Charity Donation :

As reported in the local press, the club has donated £1,000 to Jigsaw, which was selected as the very worthy recipient of this years charity donation by the committee on your behalf. The funds come from the surplus in our exhibitions account. Jigsaw staff were very grateful for this unexpected windfall since they had a large shortfall in expected funding this year.

Annual General Meeting (April 8th 2010):

It is not too early to think about any substantive items which you might wish to be included in the Agenda. If you have something then please send it to our Secretary, Anita McLaren, preferably by e mail (anita@helensburgh.info). Minor points which you may wish to raise can be dealt with under Any Other Business at the end of the meeting.

We have been contacted by the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce who would like to hold an Arts and Crafts sale on November 21st in the Community Centre, Alexandria. They would appreciate a few members of the Art Club taking tables for the day. If you are interested could you contact Anita a.s.a.p. or you could email:-

williamwilkie53@hotmail.com

Finally, today is the day to collect the exhibits from the Library at the Artist Adventure Exhibition.